

Contact: Paul Millet ~ 818-298-4303 or paul@wickedlit.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Wicked Lit to reprise the 2008 Reading Series in December

Clark Magnet High School in La Crescenta will host two readings

GLENDALE, CA (December 12, 2008) – The Nom de Guerre Theatre Guild (Paul Millet, President) announced that the 2008 Wicked Literature reading series will be remounted at Clark Magnet High School in La Crescenta for two readings on Friday, December 19, 2008.

“This has always been part of the mission of Wicked Literature, to reach out to educators and provide an opportunity for students to experience classic literature in a new way.” said Paul Millet, the festival’s creator and producing artistic director. “The fact that Clark High reached out to us to bring Wicked Lit into their classrooms tells me that we’re doing something right.”

Mary Mardirosian, the ELD Department Chair at Clark Magnet High School invited Wicked Lit into the school. There will be two separate programs; the first at 10am and the second at 1:30pm. Each program will last approximately 75 minutes and will feature two of the plays read during the 2008 Reading Series, followed by a question and answer session with the students.

The scope of Wicked Lit involves the creation of new stage adaptations of classic literature in the thriller genre. Wicked Lit debuted this past October as a region-wide play reading series that included 13 dates at venues stretching from Anaheim to Moorpark.

For more information about the readings at Clark Magnet High School, please contact Mary Mardirosian at (818) 248-8324 ext.1328 or via email at MKMardirosian@gusd.net.

For information about Wicked Lit, please call Paul Millet at 818-298-4303.
Or Email: paul@wickedlit.org