FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Wicked Lit to debut a new play at the Pasadena ARTtalk

Play reading will feature KPCC Morning Edition host Steve Julian

GLENDALE, CA (March 12, 2010) – The Nom de Guerre Theatre Guild (Paul Millet, President) announced that the newest Wicked Literature play will be presented as a staged reading during the Pasadena Playhouse District Association’s ARTtalk celebration of the written word. The new play, an adaptation of The Body Snatcher by Robert Louis Stevenson was written by Nom de Guerre Artistic Director Paul Millet.

“We’re thrilled to be part of the ARTtalk celebration once again,” said Millet, one of the creators of Wicked Lit. “ARTtalk offers a wonderful platform to debut our newest works to the public.”

The cast of veteran Los Angeles actors is lead by award-winning radio personality and KPCC Morning Edition host Steve Julian, a veteran stage actor and playwright.

“We are thrilled to have Steve involved with the reading of The Body Snatcher,” says Jonathan Josephson, co-producer of Wicked Lit. “His dynamic voice and dedication to the theatre are wonderful assets to this reading series.”

The entire cast includes Silverio Avellino, Shelby Kocee, Kate Janson, Steve Julian, David Reynolds, and Michael Pritchard.

ARTtalk will be produced by the Pasadena Playhouse District Association and the Boston Court Performing Arts Center on Saturday, March 20, 2010 from 11am – 5pm, with the The Body Snatcher reading starting at 4:30pm. ARTtalk is a free, all-ages event. The Boston Court is located at 70 N. Mentor Avenue, Pasadena CA 91106.
